It was a joby crowd that passed up the main street and down to the train early Saturday morning, and cheer after cheer went up from the cheer after cheer went up from the men standing all along the line of manch, as the men passed in a column of squads. Before leaving here these were inoculated the third and hast time and had uniforms issued t

daily on the drill field of each regi-ment now. Many people are structed from nearby towns and come here severy-day to see the parade. The 319th seems to be the most popular and center of attraction for the sight-

With the dawn of nearly every day comes a car bearing a lennsylvania. Recess pizie, and the compliments of the Keystone State. It was expected that Dr. Chyde-Compbell, W. C. Bishop and party would visit the camp on their way back from the Hagerstown fair but they must have been afraid to take a chance-on the Virginia roads.

Clarenco Durbin gave a public exhibition Sunday night on a gay wire supporting a telegraph Pole on the main street in front of the Company I barracks Many people passing in automobiles stopped to watch the young acrobat. As Durbin swing and higher in the air short went up from the speciators, "Go higher, Durbin go higher" Durbin stopped and was comin back to Mother Earth when a fillow below shouted, "Go higher Durbin and we'll
